

VE Celebrations at Violet Way

On Friday 8th May it is 75 years since VE Day. Although we are not all in school together we still want to celebrate.

Please can you dress up in red, white and blue and hold a Union Jack flag – template on home learning if you want to colour one in to hold.

Then have your photo taken and email it into school to k.williams@violetway.org to be used on a VE school video to be posted on our website and Twitter.

Please make sure you send these to school by Tuesday 5th May so that we have time to put them all together ready for Friday.

Children and staff coming into school on Friday 8th May to dress in red, white and blue on this day too to take part in some celebrations.
