

SUMMER HOLIDAYS HOME LEARNING RECEPTION

The children have been doing a fantastic job with all of their learning both in school and at home over the last few months. Although there will be no weekly home learning over the Summer holidays we have compiled a list of key skills for reading, writing and maths for each year group so you can keep practising over the summer holidays ready to wow your teachers in September. Included below are some websites which you may want to use to help practise these skills. Remember for reading all phonic sounds and HFW can be found in the back of your reading diary.

Espresso - www.discoveryeducation.co.uk Username: student27647 Password – violet A very popular resource that we use in school with 1000's of videos, activities and games across all topics. Foundation – is focused on Reception and KS1 on Years 1 and 2 but you can search and use the site to find a range of activities.

White rose maths - <https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/> Great ideas of maths activities and a video to watch to explain learning. Just go to your Year Group and follow the activities.

Ruth Miskin Phonics - <https://www.ruthmiskin.com/en/> Phonics activities, online lessons and advice – following the Read Write Inc phonics scheme that we use as a school. Each day on you tube there will be a lesson for your child to watch. Google you tube – Ruth Miskin. Free ebooks to <https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/librarypage/>

BBC Bitesize - <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/levels/z3g4d2p>
Range of lessons and videos across a range of subjects

BBC Supermovers - <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/supermovers/ks1-collection/zbr4scw>
Learn about key skills whilst improving your dance moves too!

Hit the Button - <https://www.topmarks.co.uk/maths-games/hit-the-button>
Quick fire maths practise skills

Oak Academy - <https://classroom.thenational.academy/year-groups>
